Rome is pretty well connected, the busses and metro will take you everywhere you need with busses running all night as well. However, you should know that notorious for not being on time.

Places to avoid:

This should not be a problem for you since you don't live in this area but avoid the area called Termini late at night as it can get pretty shady but it is completely fine during the day.

Be mindful of your stuff as there can be pickpockets in busy areas.

No need to be afraid, Rome is pretty safe in general.

Food delivery app:

We all get lazy sometimes and want to order in food from time to time- the app Glovo would help you in this case.

To make the best of Rome, you will end up walking quite a bit, so i would suggesting packing in some comfortable shoes.

The little water fountains that you will see around the city has drinkable water, so you can fill up your bottles with no worry.

A quick tip- Do not forget to try Maritozzo for breakfast, it's simply delicious!

Understanding the difference between Trattoria, Osteria and Ristorante

Trattoria is a family owned restaurants which prepares regional dishes that mostly use locally sources ingredients

Osteria is a wine bar that eveolved to serve small plates, traditionally these places didn't have a menu and served what they made daily.
